SLEEP OUT SACRAMENTO

Saturday, November 12

2011

cottagehousing.org/SOS

Sleep out, Sacramento. For one night, understand what living homeless is like.

On Saturday, November 12, 2011, the inaugural "Sleep Out Sacramento" gives Sacramentans the opportunity to join this life-changing movement..in a safe, and fun, environment.

Hundreds of fellow homeless advocates, service providers and neighbors—all passionate about ending Sacramento's homeless crisis will be honoring the homeless by sleeping out.

Can't join the Sleep Out? No problem! Show your support by donating to our Texting Campaign.

Using your mobile phone, text the letters "SOS" to 41518, and a $5 donation will go towards supporting homeless families and children.

Make Your Own SOS Event: SOS organizers encourage groups, associations, schools and faith communities to hold their own "sleep out" gathering dedicated to ending the homeless crisis in the Sacramento region.

Time: Sleep Outs begins at 5:00pm and lasts until 9:00am the following morning.

Goal: To raise $100,000 for Sacramento's homeless

What difference does your $5 donation make?

- A day of medication
- 2 weeks supply of diapers
- 2 warm meals
- Dry socks for a month
- A winter jacket
- A child's backpack and school supplies

Standard text messaging rates do apply.

Share with us! Tell us how you're honoring the homeless and post your photos on CHI's Facebook page: facebook.com/cottagehousing, or tweet about your own SOS experience using the hashtag #SOS2011!

Organizers: Cottage Housing, Inc. alongside collaborative partners, Francis House Center and Legal Services of Northern California, are asking you to dedicate your night and at least one text message to Sacramento's homeless families and individuals. All donations will benefit homeless families and individuals affiliated with the three partners\ organizations.
